

ASHURST WOOD YOUTH CLUB

Photography

Since young people may be photographed while participating in club events and activities, written permission from parents/guardians will be obtained which will also allow photographic material to be used in the public domain.

This permission forms part of the membership form where permission will/will not be given by the parents/guardians.